Job Fair and Info Sessions

In response to the recent lay-offs in our region, we are organizing a Job Fair on March 18, 2009 at NSCC Kingstec. This will be a similar format to the job fair that was held two years ago at the Old Orchard Inn, which saw over 700 job seekers in attendance. This event will be open to anyone from the public who wishes to participate (job seekers do not need to register).

The format for the day is as follows:

8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.: Information sessions for the unemployed workforce

12:00 noon to 7:00 p.m.: Job Fair

Employers: Attendance will be free for employers who currently have available job openings. You will be provided with table space to showcase your current opportunities, should you be able to attend. If you have current job opportunities, but are unable to attend, we will keep job postings on hand that day and will accept resumes on your behalf.

Service Providers: As part of our efforts to get as much information out to our community, we are offering any service providers (workforce and business development organizations and etc.) with space to showcase your services.

To sign up for table space, please contact the Kings CED Agency by phone at (902) 678-2298 or via e-mail at meastman@kingsced.ns.ca.

Apple Blossom Festival Updates

This year's 77th Apple Blossom Festival will be held from May 27, 2009 to June 1, 2009. The Apple Blossom Festival is looking to fill the role of Dan D Apple this year. You must be able to commit at least 30 hours during the week of the festival, must be outgoing, love kids and does not mind large groups of people. You must be available for various events leading up to and on Apple Blossom weekend. Applications are available at www.appleblossom.com.

As well, applications for the children's parade and the grand street parade will be available this year online at www.appleblossom.com or at the Kings CED Agency's office at 35 Webster Street, Kentville.
